

PiXL Me Artist Guidelines

The following information supplements PiXL Me's Artist Agreement. As a PiXL Me Artist you are required to adhere to the policies outlined below.

Account Registration and Required Forms

- You must be 18 years of age to create a PiXL Me account.
- You may not share an account with another individual, and/or share content with another PiXL Me contributor without prior consent from PiXL Me.
- The "Make payments to" name in your account must be your full legal name as it appears on your tax form; this is the name to which royalty payments will be made. For business accounts this field will contain the business name.
- In order to make your PiXL Me account a business account, you must provide us with documentation as required by your country or state that indicates you are a principal owner of the business.
- You may not open a second PiXL Me account without permission from PiXL Me.
- You may not share the same online payment processing service account (like Payoneer, Paypal or Skrill) with another PiXL Me contributor.
- You must submit an applicable tax form in order to receive payments of royalties accrued in your account. PiXL Me will not issue payments to accounts without an approved tax form.

Account Regulation

If we see repeated issues related to content submissions or account activity, you may receive a warning. Multiple warnings may result in account suspension or termination. Some reasons for receiving warnings include:

Account Activity

- Failure to follow the guidelines outlined in Account Registration, above
- Sharing a Payoneer, Paypal or Skrill account with another PiXL Me contributor

Content Submissions

Please note: Intentionally submitting content to which you do not own copyright or submitting content that infringes on the copyright of another artist will lead to immediate account termination.

- Submitting content that infringes on the rights of any person. Including directly copying or excessive inspiration from work to which you do not own the copyright.
- Repeatedly resubmitting rejected content without correcting the legal/compliance, technical quality, or metadata issues that have been identified.
- Frequent errors with respect to required submission tags such as the Mature Content designation.
- Consistent repeated Title or keyword spamming - repeating the same word within the title and/or using irrelevant or repetitive keywords
- Consistent repeated submissions of Objectional content including inappropriate titles or keywords.
- Re-adding keywords that were previously removed by an administrator, adding restricted keywords after content approval, or modifying a caption that was previously edited by an administrator

Content Ownership and Intellectual Property

Copyright gives the author(s) of a creative work the exclusive right to display, reproduce, distribute, and financially benefit from the work they create. If you have questions about ownership of your content on PiXL Me, please review the PiXL Me Artist Agreement. The PiXL Me Artist Agreement describes and controls your legal relationship with PiXL Me, the rights you are granting to PiXL Me in any content submitted by you to PiXL Me, and the uses PiXL Me may make of the content.

If you believe the copyright to an image on PiXL Me has been infringed upon, please collect all information pertaining to these images and contact us by email:

- You must own or control the copyright to all content you submit to PiXL Me. This means that you cannot submit work obtained from other sources (e.g., online image search results or free image download websites).
- Content submissions must not contain any copyrighted material, including artwork, other photos, sculptures, architecture, exhibits or audio which are copyrighted, unless accompanied by a property release signed by the owner of all intellectual property rights in such material.

- Content submissions may not contain trademarks, service marks or other indication of origin, including logos, owned by third parties.
- If submitted content contains copyrighted material, you must submit releases from the copyright owner.
- You may not submit content created in a manner that violates human rights.
- Do not embed your own watermark, website name, or copyright notice in your content. We protect your content with our own watermark, which is applied when your content is accepted to our site.
- We reserve the right to remove any previously accepted content submission from the PiXL Me database and reserve the right to reinstate any previously accepted content submission which was later removed by a PiXL Me administrator, at any time for any reason.

Content Quality Guidelines

Content submitted to PiXL Me must be of professional quality and each submission is reviewed by a global network of creative professionals. Click on the links below to learn more on each subject:
